Showcase your Library's Value

Do you have the need ... to WEED? Let collection development products from Bowker® keep you on track.

Collection development products like
Resources for College Libraries™ (RCL) and Bowker Book Analysis System™ help thousands of academic librarians sort core titles quickly.

Academic libraries face the task of weeding on a regular basis, and collection development policies are built on it. There are many good reasons why:

- To ensure currency and relevance – purge outdated materials
- To protect or discard worn items
- To provide access to the right titles per core recommendations
- To increase shelf space for print titles or make way for the new learning commons
- To determine and take action on gaps in the collection

But weeding is hard and downright emotional at times, not to mention costly, in both time and money. With the right toolset from Bowker, weeding projects can be streamlined, decision time capped, resources and budgets saved, and collections, developed!

Let Resources for College Libraries™ (RCL) and Bowker Book Analysis System™ help.

Discover.Read.Study.Perform.

New for Spring 2013, Drama Online is the ultimate online resource for plays, critical analysis and performance for libraries, educators, students and researchers.

Developed in partnership by Bloomsbury Publishing Plc and Faber and Faber Ltd, Drama Online features the pre-eminent drama titles from the Methuen Drama, The Arden Shakespeare and Faber lists, to form a collection of the most studied, performed and critically acclaimed plays from the last two and half thousand years.

In addition, it provides expert student guidance in the form of scholarly notes, annotated texts, critical analysis and contextual information. Performance and practitioner texts from theory to backstage and acting guides, coupled with audio material, will make this an essential study tool meeting the full range of drama teaching needs.

Key Features and Benefits

- Instant access to hundreds of plays and reference works
- Regularly updated with contemporary plays and study materials
- Expert guidance with annotated texts, scholarly editions and critical material
- Powerful full text searching and advanced search options
- Filtered browsing across authors, periods, genres and themes
- Personalization features: annotate, save, share, extract, citation options
- Simple navigation and intuitive user interface, easily accessible from VLEs
- View cast size and the number of lines per character
- Rehearsal grids illustrate when characters appear in scenes
- Quick access to 'part books': lines for individual characters
- Option to turn textual notes on or off
- Detailed monologues and audition speech search
- Comfortable on-screen reading experience complete with pagination, stage directions and lineation in place
- Cross referencing via DOI (Digital Object Identifiers) and OpenURLs
- Industry standard access: unlimited concurrent access via IP recognition, Shibboleth, library cards, and username and password for remote users

EconLit Now Has Economics Articles Published since 1886!

www.aeaweb.org/econlit

With more to come!

The American Economic Association (AEA) has created EconLit records for journal articles indexed in Volumes 1–10 of the AEA's Index of Economic Articles. Many of these journals are now available in full text and may be linked to from EconLit if they are part of a library's holdings.

The EconLit records include complete bibliographic citations, subject descriptors and subject codes from the AEA's 1961–1968 classification system, geographic and regional descriptors, and named historical persons.

EconLit will soon add records for articles from 1886–1968 collective works (edited volumes, conference proceedings, etc.). We will also match abstracts from the Journal of Economic Abstracts (1963–1968) and from the Journal of Economic Literature (1969–1986) to journal records.

The older records will become part of EconLit subscriptions at no extra cost.

ABC-CLIO eBook Collection

Choose from more than 7,400 titles with enhanced readability, and advanced searching and browsing.

ABC-CLIO's eBook Collection is a perfect match for the way students conduct research today.

“Bottom Line:

For design, this rates a ten. For content, it also rates a ten. For ease of use, it's a ten. For rational pricing (keeping the discounts firmly in mind!), ten again. All in all, this is a truly viable alternative to printed reference books. Enthusiastically recommended to public and academic libraries. It's something your researchers can, and will, use.”

Take their word for it and try us.

"Great customer service! That's why we love to work with Midwest."

Lydia Murch
Lee University

"I truly appreciate the service that you give us and I always enjoy talking to you on the phone. I think you are absolutely WONDERFUL and you give AWESOME service."

Carolyn Marr
Wayland Baptist University

"You're a benchmark for how customer service should be conducted."

Eric Kidwell
Huntingdon University

"We recently signed up with Midwest to handle our Continuations. The customer service is outstanding. Our representative is extremely helpful and returns emails and phone calls right away. We couldn't be happier."

Leanne Roseberry
Lincoln Land Community College

"I love the new status report. It sure makes things easy when checking on unfilled orders—what a great idea. Your website is so easy to navigate and it is easy to check on orders and even cancel if you have to. Kudos to Midwest."

Pat Christensen
Olds College

"I am seriously considering consolidating all of our orders and sending them to Midwest. The major reason is that I love the new InterACQ. I usually have to deal with all different types of databases, i.e., excel, pdf, etc. Your system gives me pretty much everything I need—status, expenditures, invoices, etc., and saves me lots of time."

Alan Schut
Dominican University

"I have used many vendors over my past 20 years and Midwest has had the best performance."

Glenda Alvin
Tennessee State University

"I am Midwest's biggest fan. I can't believe how every shipment is dead on accurate and how all the books are so neatly packed; nothing ever damaged. Thanks for being such a great company and providing such tremendous service!"

Cindy Hubbard
Merced College

"Once again, Midwest's customer service has gone far beyond the normal request level. In both my professional experience and my personal experience, I don't know of any other company that comes close to providing such excellent customer service."

Karen Kriegel (retired)
San Francisco Public Library

"The service we receive from each and every one of you is utterly amazing. I cannot think of a single moment when I've been treated "just OK." You are all wonderful to work with and I have come to rely on each and every one of you. You all make my job easier and certainly much more fun."

Kelly Darnell
Albuquerque/Bernalillo County Library

"Midwest does a wonderful job on processing and binding. The books are always "crisp & clean" and neatly done at reasonable prices."

Carla Kramer
Ventura College

"I want to thank you for all the great service you have provided this year. It was a very hectic year for us with so many changes in budget matters, vendors and turn over in staff. Through it all, we have always been able to depend on Midwest as our mainstay for orders."

Shirley Jeffries (retired)
College of Charleston

We strive for complete customer satisfaction, with service second to none.
